

SUBMISSION EXTENDED

AUATK
(Australian Association of Teachers of Korean)

Call for Papers

3rd International Conference and Annual Teacher Workshop of the Australian Association of Teachers of Korean

15-17 December 2022
The University of Western Australia, Perth

“Post-pandemic Korean language education”

The Australian Association of Teachers of Korean (AUATK) invites individual abstracts, panel, and workshop presentation proposals from established scholars, early career researchers, postgraduate students, and Korean language education practitioners for the Third AUATK International Conference and Teacher Workshop, to be held on December 15-17th 2022 at the University of Western Australia, Perth. The event is generously supported by the Academy of Korean Studies (AKS-2022-C005) and the Korean Education Centre in Australia.

The 2022 conference theme will be Post-Pandemic Korean Language Education. The event organisers aim to capitalise on the lessons learned during the Covid-19 pandemic, foster reflections about alternative forms of effective Korean language teaching, and promote research-based and technology-supported methodologies to improve Korean language education. Proposals also dealing with other aspects of Korean language and culture education and Korean applied linguistics will be considered. The 2022 event will feature research presentations on Day 1 (December 16) and hands-on workshop-style presentations on Day 2 (December 17).

The event organisers will provide:

- Twin-share room accommodation for three nights to all participants.
- Welcome reception on December 15.
- Lunch on December 16 & 17.
- Conference dinner on December 16.
- Travel support grants will be available for school teachers and MA/PhD students participating in the event. The number and amount of travel grants will depend on final funding availability. Priority in assigning travel grants will be given to participants based in Australia.

The organisers will waive the conference registration fees for all participants. However, participants will be required to be AUATK members for 2022 or to join the association upon participating in the event (membership fee is A$40 for academics and teachers, and A$20 for Ma/PhD students). Details on renewing the membership or joining the association website at this link.

Key Dates

Submission deadline: ~~July 30, 2022~~ August 30, 2022

Notification of abstract proposal outcomes (abstract received after July 30): 9 September, 2022.

Delegates' arrival: December 15, 2022.

International conference presentations: December 16, 2022.

Teaching workshop presentations: December 17, 2022.

Submission of proposals and participant application

Application to participate and present in the event can be submitted online at the link below, also available on the AUATK website event homepage.

Application and proposal submission

The organisers accept proposals for research presentations (December 16) and workshop presentations (December 17). An AUATK review panel will assess all proposals. Research presentations will be limited to 20 minutes + 10 minutes for discussion. Workshop presentations will be limited to 45 minutes.

Instructional video contest

The leading up to the event will feature a Korean language educational video contest. This contest showcases best pedagogical practices in blending technology and Korean language instruction. All presenting and non-presenting participants are eligible to submit an instructional video.

To enter the video contest, please fill out the event participation form at the link above, then send a link to download your video to auatk21@gmail.com by October 30.

The winner will be announced before the event, receive a travel grant up to A$900, and be asked to deliver a workshop presentation on December 17. Further details are available on the event website.

For information, please contact Dr Nicola Fraschini at auatk21@gmail.com.